Ensures fairness in the provision of information Market: Consumer MARKET INFORMATIONAL relevant to decision-making Protects consumers from exploitation, fraud, & Focuses on the accuracy, completeness, & deceptive practices accessibility of information provided to Promotes transparency, product safety, & fair pricing in the marketplace stakeholders Market: Competition Involves fairness in addressing & resolving RESTORATIVE Ensures fair competition & market access for all conflicts or harm participants Focuses on repairing relationships, restoring Addresses issues such as monopolies, price trust, & addressing the consequences of unfair fixing, & unfair trade practices treatment Economic: Distributional Research: Access ECONOMIC RESEARCH Ensures equitable distribution of economic Ensures equitable access to research resources, opportunities, & outcomes within opportunities, resources, & funding Addresses barriers such as funding SOME Addresses disparities in income, wealth, & constraints, institutional biases, or geographic access to economic opportunities, aiming for a disparities more equitable distribution among individuals & Research: Ethical TYPES OF FAIRNESS groups Upholds ethical standards in research Economic: Opportunity practices & dissemination of findings Ensures equal access to economic opportunities - Focuses on integrity, transparency, & & advancement despite socioeconomic accountability in research conduct & reporting background Focuses on eliminating barriers such as Concerned with fairness in the distribution of DISTRIBUTIVE discrimination, unequal access to education & resources, rewards, or outcomes employment, & systemic inequalities that hinder Aims to ensure equitable allocation based on economic mobility criteria such as need, effort, or contribution Environmental: Inter-Generational Healthcare: Treatment ENVIRONMENTAL HEALTHCARE Considers the impact of environmental decisions Ensures fair and equitable treatment in on future generations healthcare delivery. Aims to ensure practices that preserve Addresses issues like health discrimination, environmental resources for future inhabitants patient autonomy, & resource allocation in healthcare settings Environmental: Distributive Ensures equitable distribution of environmental Healthcare: Access resources & risks Ensures equitable access to healthcare Addresses disparities in environmental services, regardless of socioeconomic status pollution, access to clean air & water, & Addresses disparities in healthcare access, exposure to environmental hazards affordability, & quality based on factors such as income, race, or geographic location Ensures fairness in the procedures used to make PROCEDURAL decisions Concerned with fairness in interpersonal INTERPERSONAL Focuses on transparency, consistency, & relationships & interactions impartiality in the decision-making process Emphasises empathy, respect, & fairness in how individuals treat each other Educational: Opportunity Ensures equitable access to educational EDUCATIONAL INTERACTIONAL Involves fairness in interpersonal interactions opportunities & resources & treatment Addresses disparities in access to quality Emphasises respectful, considerate, & education, e.g. funding, facilities, support dignified treatment of individuals during services processes or transactions Educational: Assessment OUTCOME Refers to the fairness perceived in the Ensures fair & unbiased assessment & outcomes or results of decisions evaluation practices in education Aims to ensure that outcomes are perceived Addresses issues such as standardised testing as just & equitable based on relevant criteria biases, grading fairness, & equitable access to educational facilities © Garry Pearson OAM, 2024 Prepared with the assistance of ChatGPT3.5